STORM IN HOUSE OF COMMONS AS CHAMBERLAIN DEFENDS STEP BY STEP COMPLETE POLICY OF APPEASEMENT TOWARDS JAPANESE AGGRESSION

Pertinent Questions In House

COLONEL SPEAR

LONDON, Aug. 4 (Reuter).—Mr. R. A. Butler, Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, gave no answer in the House of Commons to-day when Comdr. O. S. Locker-Lampson, (Conservative) asked there was any prominent Japanese who might be detained pending the release of Col. C. R. Spear, M.C., British Military Attache in China.

Questioned further, the Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs declared that the British Government was taking a very serious view of the case and have possible future action under consideration.

"There have been delays in providing Col. Spear with certain amenities," said Mr. Butler, "but we understand that in some respects conditions have recently improved as the result of representations."

Sir Percy Harris (Labour) asked: Isn't it clear that Col. Spear's detention is a definite breach of international law and will the British Government be more vigorous in the protection of their citizens?

Mr. Butler: Vigour in this case is obviously necessary. The British Government has not relaxed its efforts to secure the officer's release. As regards diplomatic immunity there is some question as to whether this applies to the exact circumstances of Col. Spear's movements.

THE FOUR MEN

LONDON, Aug. 4 (Reuter).—Mr. P. J. Noel-Baker (Labour), in the House of Commons to-day, asked whether the Japanese Government had yet furnished any evidence showing the guilt of the four Chinese who are alleged to have murdered a Japanese agent in Tientsin.

The Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, Mr. R. A. Butler, replied, "Yes. A Japanese communication to the British representatives in Tokyo offers evidence against the four men and this is now under consideration."

SILVER STOCKS

LONDON, Aug. 4 (Reuter).—Questioned in the House of Commons, in regard to silver reserves in Tientsin, the Prime Minister, Mr. Chamberlain, replied, "As I stated on July 31 these are matters which involve other nationals besides our own and we could not come to an agreement about them without reference to the other Governments."

"I may add that the silver is not held by the British banks but is in the premises owned by the Bank of Communications in the British Concession."

MR. M. J. SAVAGE

WELLINGTON, Aug. 4 (Reuter).—A bulletin issued to-day says that the Prime Minister of New Zealand, Mr. M. J. Savage, who underwent an abdominal operation yesterday, is doing as well as can be expected.

DUTCH CABINET

THE HAGUE, Aug. 4 (Reuter).—Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands received D. J. Degeer, Christian Traditionalist leader, and charged him with the forming of a Cabinet.

Highlights Of Statement

The following are the highlights of Mr. Chamberlain's speech as reported by Reuter:

PROTECTION OF BRITONS IN CHINA: I want the House to bear in mind that the situation for Britain is particularly difficult. We have been compelled to undertake some heavy commitments in Europe. It is impossible for us to undertake the same commitments in the Far East. Surely we must remember, in the presence even of those insults and injuries which are inflicted on the British people in China by the Japanese, that there are limits to what we can do at this time to help our people there.

BRITAIN'S STRENGTH IN FAR EAST: At the present moment we have not got a Far Eastern fleet superior to the Japanese. In certain circumstances we might find it necessary to send the Home Fleet there. I hope no one will think that it is absolutely out of the question for such circumstances to arise. I don't mean that as a threat but only as a warning. At the same time we would much rather settle the differences with the Japanese by discussion and negotiation than do it by threat of force.

TOKYO FORMULA: What matters is not the interpretation the Japanese put on it but how we interpret the definition. At any rate, this formula has enabled us to discuss the very delicate situation and it looks as though we should not have any great difficulty in coming to an agreement with the Japanese.

JAPAN'S GOOD FAITH: On the question of joint police control in Tientsin, there is not always complete unanimity between Tientsin and Tokyo. In cases of doubt, I think we should accept the Tokyo view.

THE FOUR MEN IN TIENSIN: We cannot hand these men over unless we have evidence. The Japanese have now submitted evidence. Prima facie case is made of their guilt, we shall have no right to do other than to hand them over.

SILVER STOCKS: These are matters which involve other nationals besides our own and we could not come to an agreement about them without consultation. I may add that the silver is not held by British banks, but in the premises of the Bank of Communications in the British Concession.

DENUNCIATION OF ANGLO-JAPANESE TREATY: We have not gone back on anything. There is nothing in the obligations we undertook at Geneva and Brussels which obliges us to denounce our trade treaty with Japan. Denunciation would have dangerous repercussions in the Dominions and it would be outrageous to shut our eyes to that fact.

MODERATION TOWARDS JAPAN: It makes my blood boil to hear of some of the things happening in China. But in conducting negotiations we shall endeavour to show patience and reasonable moderation, recognizing that behind all these outrageous things there may be some genuine suspicion on the part of the Japanese in China of our treatment of them.

"MUCH GRAVER PROBLEMS": There are much graver problems nearer home to be considered in the course of the next few months and that we must conserve our forces to meet any emergency that might arise.

Mr. Neville Chamberlain

Japan Gives No Reply On Agitation

BUTLER SILENT

LONDON, Aug. 4 (Reuter).—In the House of Commons to-day, Mr. Arthur Henderson (Labour) asked whether a reply had been received from the Japanese Government regarding the anti-British campaign in China and in view of the fact that anti-British agitation continues, whether the British Government will not press for a reply and, failing a reply, consider recalling the British Ambassador for further consultations?

Mr. R. A. Butler replied: I think the cessation of agitation is even more important than the reply, and the British Government have made their viewpoint perfectly clear to the Japanese Government in the recent debate and in speeches by the Prime Minister and myself.

Mr. Henderson: Has not ample time been given the Japanese Government to answer the representations and isn't it ominous they have failed to do so?

Mr. Butler: I think they have had ample time. There can be no doubt about our feelings in the matter.

Mr. Ellis Smith (Labour): Will the Minister bear in mind that those of us who heard Lord Halifax in the House of Lords last night were reassured as regards the way the matter is being handled.

Mr. W. Gallacher (Com.): Is the Minister unaware that the Japanese are treating the British Government with contempt?

ALL HOLLAND HOPES FOR MALE HEIR

Soestdijk Palace Ready For Blessed Event

SOESTDIJK, Aug. 4 (Reuter).—The gynaecologist, Dr. De Jong, has left The Hague for Soestdijk Palace to attend Princess Juliana the birth of whose baby seems imminent. Queen Wilhelmina, who had intended to return to The Hague after spending the night at the Palace, changed her plans and is remaining with her daughter.

At the Palace everything is in readiness. The two nurses who attended at the birth of the first child are standing by.

The whole nation is waiting eagerly for the event and is hoping that the baby will be a boy for it is a hundred years since Holland has had a male heir to the Throne.

HONGKONG SENDS BIRTHDAY WISHES TO THE QUEEN

On the occasion of the birthday anniversary of Her Majesty the Queen yesterday, His Excellency the Governor despatched the following telegram to the Secretary of State for the Colonies, conveying the good wishes of the Colony:—

"Request that you will convey to Her Majesty the Queen on the occasion of her birthday the good wishes and loyal and hearty congratulations of all sections of the community in Hongkong."

Manoeuvres In Hungary

BUDAPEST, Aug. 4 (Reuter).—Three hundred and fifty thousand men are being called up for manoeuvres which, with those already under arms, makes a total of 500,000. The manoeuvres will be held in three regions, namely, not far from the western border, the southern border and Bessarabia.

BANZAI "ORDERED" FOR WANG!

Special to the "Hongkong Daily Press"

Arrangements are in full swing in Canton for the early formation, by Wang Ching-wei, of a new puppet government to be known as the "South-Western All Citizens' Government of the Republic of China."

"BUYING" OVER
Chen Kung-po, former Minister of Industries, who is Wang Ching-wei's leading lieutenant, and Chen Pi-chun (Mrs. Wang Ching-wei) have arrived in Canton, according to messages received by the "Hongkong Daily Press" yesterday.

They propose first of all to call a meeting of the so-called National Convention of Kuomintang Representatives. This will be followed by the "People's Representative Congress. With this in view, attempts are being made, by these puppets to bribe, or buy over, disgruntled members of the Kuomintang in order to secure a "quorum."

The "Hongkong Daily Press" also understands that official invitations have been issued to all people's representatives, elected some months ago, to attend the "Congress."

Elaborate preparations are being made by the Japanese and their agents to welcome Wang, who is expected shortly to arrive in the City of Rams.

Already decorated pallon (or arches) are being built and the citizens of Canton and the districts of Kwangtung under Japanese domination have been ordered to get ready their five-striped flags and to hoist them when the new "government" is inaugurated under Wang Ching-wei's leadership.

A Round-Up
Agents have been sent to the different districts by the Japanese to inform the people that, when the new Wang Ching-wei puppet "administration" takes over, all responsibility for the maintenance of peace and order in the province of Kwangtung will be assumed by Wang and his clique and that the Japanese will withdraw their forces to strategic points. The people are being told that the Japanese will in future deal with the good Chinese people as friends and not as military victors.

Meanwhile, it is reliably reported that some of the Japanese agents have even come to Hongkong to urge the Chinese people here to go back to Canton as Hongkong is not a safe place in which to live.

"It is most unlikely that Wang Ching-wei's puppet regime will receive any support from responsible Chinese, hence the formation of the new 'government' means nothing whatever. As to Hongkong Chinese going to Canton, readers will judge for themselves whether the local Chinese will answer this call—Ed."

MOMENTOUS PARLIAMENT DEBATE TEXT OF PRIME MINISTER'S REPLY

Noel-Baker Urges Treaty Abrogation

LONDON, Aug. 4 (Reuter).—Mr. P. J. Noel-Baker (Labour), initiating the debate, said that the war in China was the most savage and most lawless conflict since the rules of war were drawn up three hundred years ago. History would not forget its shameless cruelty and carnage. The United States State Department had estimated there had been 600 outrages by the Japanese against American citizens.

The outrages against the British, he said, must run into thousands and the ultimate object of the Japanese was to drive westerners from Asia.

Mr. Noel-Baker contended that the Chinese losses compared with the Japanese were reduced and equalized and that the only hope of the Japanese was to destroy the guerrilla movement.

The most effective way of doing so was by destroying the confidence of the Chinese peasant in the Chinese dollar.

Mr. Noel-Baker urged the abrogation of the British Trade Treaty with Japan.

WHAT DID HE THINK?

LONDON, Aug. 4 (Reuter).—Mr. Quo Tai-chi, Chinese Ambassador in London, was present in the Diplomatic Gallery in the House of Commons to-day to listen to the debate on foreign affairs.

"Down With Britain"

TOKYO, AUG. 4 (REUTER).—A CROWD OF 25,000 from the business quarter demonstrated in front of the British Embassy, carrying banners inscribed "Down with Britain" and other slogans.

Five representatives of the demonstrators handed resolutions to Mr. W. B. Cunningham, Counsellor of the British Embassy.

Anti-British rallies are reported in other towns throughout Japan.

Meanwhile the Japanese press is pessimistic regarding the progress of the Anglo-Japanese negotiations.

Chamberlain Justifies Far East Retreat

LONDON, Aug. 4 (Reuter).—Replying to Mr. Noel-Baker, the Prime Minister, Mr. Chamberlain, said: I do not seek to minimise the British Government's strong objections to the many incidents in which Japanese have been concerned in the course of the last few months. But I want to House to bear in mind that the situation for Britain is particularly difficult.

It is hardly necessary for me to point out the fundamental difference between the United States and its isolation from Europe, and this country. Surely we must remember all the time in the presence even of those insult and injuries which are inflicted on the British people in China by the Japanese that there are limits to what we can do at this time to help our people there.

At the present moment we have not got a Far East Fleet superior to the Japanese. We have such a Fleet here. In certain circumstances we might find it necessary to send a fleet out there. At the

JAPAN JOINING PACT WITH AXIS POWERS? MILITARISTS' REQUEST

TOKYO, Aug. 4 (T/Ocean).—A conference took place on Thursday afternoon between the Chief of the Japanese General Staff, Prince Kanin, the War Minister, Gen. Itagaki, and the Inspector of Military Education, Gen. Nishio, at which, according to reports current in political circles, the decision was taken to still further strengthen the existing ties which link up Japan to the Axis Powers in Europe.

It is emphasised in political circles that Mr. Chamberlain's statement that England's policy in China remains unaltered in principle and Washington's unfriendly attitude as expressed in the denunciation of the trade agreement constitute new factors of which the Japanese Government must inevitably take account.

The proposal for a Military Alliance with the Axis Powers, is interpreted as immediate reaction of the Japanese Army to the situation which has arisen.

MEETING NEAR ROME
ROME, Aug. 4 (Reuter).—The Japanese Ambassadors in Rome and Berlin, accompanied by several counsellors, of the Embassies and military attaches, met at Villagiate, near Rome, yesterday.

Stimulation Of Shipping In Australia

CANBERRA, Aug. 4 (Reuter).—Measures to stimulate Australian shipping were announced by the Prime Minister, Mr. R. G. Menzies. The Premier said that at the forthcoming session of Parliament the Government would seek to reduce the import duty on foreign ships to 15 per cent., except in the case of British vessels where the duty will be entirely abolished, and will grant a bounty to the maximum of £20,000 on locally built vessels between 100 and 1,500 tons.

H.K.F.C. ANNUAL MEETING

Chairman On High Spirit Of Sportsmanship

A Year Of Trying Times Experienced By Club

"WE YIELD PLACE TO NO CLUB IN THE COLONY IN THE STANDARD WE SET IN THE SPIRIT OF SPORTSMANSHIP AND THE TRADITION OF HOSPITALITY. It is up to every member, young and old, to uphold the enviable reputation which the Club has gained and maintained throughout its 52 years of existence," remarked Mr. J. Ralston, amid prolonged applause, when he presided at the annual meeting of the Hongkong Football Club yesterday.

A year of trying times which the Club had experienced owing to the departure on leave of several stalwarts of its team, was recorded in the Hon. Secretary, Mr. E. L. Strange's report, which also revealed an increase in membership of over 30 during the past year.

Addressing the meeting, Mr. Ralston said, in part:—

The net gate receipts from the ground, including share of Gates from other Clubs and the Hongkong Football Association, amounts to $4,390 an increase of $2,730 over the previous year.

The Bar profit for the year compares favourably with that of 1938 showing an increased profit of $270. The activities of the Bowls section during the summer contributed in no small measure to this healthy profit, which works out at about 30 per cent. on cost.

Turning now to the expenditure side, you will observe that the hire and maintenance of stands shows a decrease of $300. A similar decrease, I am sorry to say, cannot be expected next year. Our stands have now reached a state where a certain amount of money must be put out on necessary repairs and it is estimated that there will be an increase of possibly $500 under this heading next year.

Turning to the Balance Sheet you will notice that there is a surplus of current liabilities over current assets of $2,700.

In connection with the decision of the Committee to increase the annual subscription from $10 to $15 per annum, a step necessary by reason of a shortage in available cash to meet our current liabilities. This unhealthy position can, I think, be directly attributed to the heavy expenditure, considered essential during the year 1937, of over $6,000 on ground and buildings.

The Committee hope that the increase in the subscription will bring in additional revenue of approximately $1,500 to $2,000 per annum.

DISCUSSION

At the open discussion, it was suggested that the accommodation of the Club's stand be halved and admission be reduced to attract more spectators.

In connection with the increase in subscription, it was suggested that since the step had been adopted, it was fair to permit entry to the grounds without admission at football games, other than charity matches, and for this procedure, the Club was to disclaim the 10 per cent. pool granted by the H.K. Football Association.

Mr. W. Pryde, the newly-elected Chairman of the Club, spoke against the move, and pointed out that it was only through mutual agreement that the pool system was introduced.

OFFICERS ELECTED

The following were the officers elected for the ensuing year:—

BASEBALL:

WHO WILL BE CELLAR CHAMPS?

DOUBLE-HEADER THIS WEEK

BY R. O. Y.

Despite the absence of the Min-danoo, a full programme of three matches will be staged this week-end, with the Hongkong Baseballers and South China battling it out, for the dubious honour of being wooden spoonists, in a double header.

Their first clash will commence at 2.30 this afternoon and the second leg will be played at 11.30 to-morrow morning.

CELLAR CHAMPS

To avoid being cellar champs, the Club have to win both of these matches, as well as win their last fixture against the Mindanoo; it is extremely unlikely that they will be able to reel off three wins in a row, but "Doc" Molthen will have his gang in there doing their damndest.

Ernie Hearther, who leaves for San Francisco and hopes to take a gander at Sally Rand's Nude Ranchettes soon, will probably be making his last local appearances for some years.

South China will be without their skipper, Bill Hong Sling, for to-day's game, but Bill will be back at the old stand to-morrow morning, and his boys should celebrate with at least one victory especially as they are favoured to take both.

TO-MORROW'S OPENER

The Chinese Baseballers and Recrelo will renew their longstanding rivalry when they tangle in the opener at 10.00 a.m. to-morrow. These two squads are tied in the third position of the league standings so a rare battle is promised.

The Portuguese boys took a 15-2 trouncing when they last met, and will strive for sweet revenge. Last year's champions have been badly weakened by the absence of key men, through injuries and illness, and it is doubtful if they will lineup at full strength. Should Earl Wong and Wilbur Wo be absentees, the Recrelo gang should have little difficulty in driving their opponents further down the ladder.

Chelsea F.C. Turn Down An Unusual Request

Chelsea F. C. have turned down an unusual request from Linfield, the Irish League club, that Thomas Priestley, the Irish International forward, should be transferred to them on loan. Chelsea want £500, which is not unreasonable. They paid £2000 to Linfield to get Priestley over here six years ago.

He remained only one season, had several operations. Another reason was that he got a bit of dirt under an eyelid at Sunderland on the New Year day and go on with his career as a school-teacher in London. He is tall and a brilliant ball player who would have made a big name in London if he could have settled down. He has been playing for Shelbourne, a League of Ireland side.

No transfer fee is necessary in their case and Priestley will continue to play for them. He was the only soccer professional ever seen playing in a skull cap.

H.K. FOOTBALL ASSN. LEAGUE FIXTURES

A meeting of the League Fixtures Sub-Committee will be held at the Association Office on Tuesday, next, August 8, at 5.15 p.m. to arrange the fixtures for the 1939-40 season.

HONGKONG DAILY PRESS

ANNOUNCES

Cover-Design Contest

For the purpose of securing a suitable design for the cover of its 82nd Anniversary Supplement, the Hongkong Daily Press offers a prize of $50 for the best finished design and $20 for the best idea for such a design. There are also other prizes for the second and third winners.

It does not matter whether you can draw or not. If you can you may submit a finished design; if not you may have an excellent idea as to how such a design should be drawn. Use your spare time to think it out and let us have your idea. We will also give you three months free subscription to the Daily Press if you win, and one month if you don't. So whatever your efforts they will not be in vain.

$50 FOR A DESIGN — $20 FOR AN IDEA

Read the following carefully if you please:—

To celebrate the 82nd Anniversary of the Hongkong Daily Press, the oldest morning paper in Hongkong, which was established on October 1, 1857, a special supplement is to be issued. This will be printed on good quality paper and will be profusely illustrated, and it will give the best presentation of Hongkong yet attempted.

As the Hongkong Daily Press's 82nd Anniversary falls ten days before October 10, the Double-Tenth, which is China's National Day, it is proposed to commemorate the occasion in the same special supplement which will, therefore, also give a comprehensive account of the progress of the Republic of China as made under the guidance of the Kuo Min Tang.

It being the wish of the publishers of the Hongkong Daily Press to emphasize Sino-British friendship as the theme of the special supplement, a cover design clearly presenting this theme is being sought. With a view to securing a suitable design, it is proposed to hold a contest, the rules of which follow:—

RULES.

1. The size of the design must be exactly 10½ inches wide and 15½ inches long, including the title.
2. The design may be done in colours but such colours must not exceed three in number. Gold or silver may, however, be added.
3. The central theme of the design must be "Sino-British Friendship."

4. Designs submitted must reach the Director of the Contest on or before August 31, 1939.

5. Competitors may send in as many designs as they wish but each design must be accompanied by a special form provided by the Hongkong Daily Press or clipped therefrom. The names and addresses of competitors must be written plainly in English on these forms but no name or mark shall be attached to the design itself.

6. Designs acceptable for the contest shall be divided into two classes:—

- a. Finished design.
- b. Design in outline or a description, or idea, of a design.

7. Prizes for the winning designs shall be as follows:—

"A" class—First prize ... $50
Second prize ... 10
Third prize ... 5
"B" class—First prize ... $20
Second prize ... 5

8. Winning designs or ideas shall become the property of the Hongkong Daily Press but others may be returned upon application.

9. All winners will be given three months' free subscription for the Hongkong Daily Press. Non-winners shall be given a month's subscription free of charge.

10. Results of the contest will be announced not later than September 10, 1939.

11. The decision of the Contest Judges shall be final.

12. The Hongkong Daily Press reserves the right to use, or not to use the winning design for the cover of the Special 82nd Anniversary Supplement.

The following form must be filled in the hand-writing of the Competitor, properly signed, and securely attached to the design submitted.

Send all designs to—The Contest Director, Hongkong Daily Press, Marine House, Queen's Road, Central, Hongkong.

SUBMARINE CHASER CHRISTENED FOR WALLACE BEERY'S NEW FILM

Wielding a bottle of Atlantic Ocean water, Carol Ann Beery, adopted daughter of Wallace Beery, christened the Submarine Chaser 591 for her father's new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, "Thunder Afloat."
The chaser is a replica of a famous ship of the United States Navy.
For the ceremonies, Beery appeared in the uniform of an ensign, which he plays in the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture.
While Carol Ann closed her eyes and swung the bottle, Chester Morris, Virginia Grey, Director George Selig and other members of the company cheered.

"MADE FOR EACH OTHER" TO-MORROW AT MAJESTIC

A new Carole Lombard appears on the screen of the Majestic Theatre to-morrow when David Selznick's "Made For Each Other" begins its engagement there.

Miss Lombard has forsaken the comedy technique that has made her famous to give a heartrending dramatic performance in this comedy-drama of young married life, and with James Stewart as co-star makes this picture an occasion that is not to be missed by the discriminating film-goer.

FOUR GIRLS IN WHITE

"Four Girls in White," a delightful film produced by the M.G.-M., now showing at the Queen's Theatre, is very fine entertainment for old and young alike. It has its moments of joy, of sadness, of comedy and of excitement.

The story is one dealing with several girls who take up nursing not as a profession but with the idea of finding wealthy husbands from patients who deliberately stay in hospital just because the nurses are pretty.

Florence Rice, Una Merkel, Ann Rutherford and Mary Howard are the four girls who take the parts of the attractive young nurses and many amusing scenes are enacted when they first enter the hospital. Alan Marshall leads the male roles and he has excellent support from Kent Taylor and Buddy Ebsen.

Those who have not seen the picture are advised to see it while they have a chance and they will find that it will agree with their appetites—Pearl Chen.

Suffragette 'Queen,' 95, Is Bankrupt

LONDON, July 24 (By Air Mail)—Fifty-nine-year-old Mrs. Charlotte Despard, "Queen of the Women's Freedom League," and one of the greatest of the Suffragette fighters, is bankrupt.

But she has the spirit of justice which made her famous in the early years of this century.

In the Belfast Bankruptcy Court her counsel said that she had been adjudicated bankrupt at her own request.

Mrs. Despard, he said, offered a dividend of ten shillings in £1. Her chauffeur had been given power of attorney over her affairs. The hearing was adjourned and a creditors' assignee was appointed.

Just over a month ago politicians and members of the Women's Freedom League, of which Mrs. Despard was a president, gathered in London to do her honour on her ninety-fifth birthday.

The cake, with ninety-five candles, was cut by another hand.

Mrs. Despard, who is a sister of the late Sir John French, was unable to travel from her home in County Antrim.

In her militant days she went to prison many times; on countless occasions she risked arrest—she was called "the Desperado" by the police.

But for all her struggles Mrs. Despard is a disappointed woman.

"The feminist movement has not done all that was expected of it," she says.

"How did I get on this ship?"

"This isn't a ship, Sir. This is the Hotel Magnificent."

"H'm. I see. Can't you do anything to stop it rolling?"

"Rolling, Sir? Oh—yes, of course. I'll speak to the manager, Sir. We'll have it stopped at once."

"Don't go away. Do you happen to know precisely what I'm doing in the Hotel Magnificent? My memory isn't too good. Must have had a nasty fall!"

"You had several jars, Sir, if I may say so. You arrived with three other gentlemen. I succeeded in undressing you, Sir—but you insisted on retaining your silk hat. I understood it was a very valuable one, Sir. Belonged to your great-grandfather."

"H'm. Yes. I see. Er—have you got anything—er—that is to say—"

"A nice, long, cool, Rose's Lime Juice, Sir, of course. Taken before, it is a valuable neutralising agent. Taken after, an excellent corrective. It is not too much to say, Sir, that in Rose's we have a new therapeutic agent to combat a condition which, alas, is—"

ENOUGH!

THERE IS LITTLE that we can add to the able and devastating attacks on Mr. Chamberlain's policy with regard to the Anglo-Japanese conversations launched in the House of Lords yesterday by Lord Cecil, Viscount Samuel and Lord Snell, and carried on in the Commons by Opposition speakers. Nor is it necessary to add anything. Every subterfuge has been exposed, every point fully covered. The fact that such onslaughts were possible, as well as the almost unanimous condemnation of the Tokyo talks by the press, proves conclusively that the British public realises more than ever before the real issues at stake in the Far East.

IN REPLY to these attacks Lord Halifax seeks to prove the point long laboured by Mr. Chamberlain—that indignation at the ill-conceived and obviously useless negotiations with the Japanese Government places those who express it in the same category as the misguided demonstrators in the streets of Tokyo, who also voice dissatisfaction with what is going on. This is an argument unworthy of a legislature in which men still continue to think and to voice their true opinions. The British opposition to the talks arises from legitimate con-

MEETING CALLED - OFF
JAPAN & EUROPEAN SITUATION

TOKYO, Aug. 4 (Reuter)—The Japanese Prime Minister, Baron Hiranuma, has called off the meeting of the Inner Cabinet which was fixed for to-morrow to determine Japan's attitude towards the European situation, according to well-informed circles quoted by the Domei agency, which says that action will only be taken "after careful consideration."

The War Minister was to have placed the views of the Army's Inner Council, which met yesterday, before the Inner Cabinet, but it is now expected that the Prime Minister will see the War and Naval Ministers separately in the next few days and exchange views on the subject.

Mrs. Woo Sal-ming, of No. 21 King Kwong Street, Happy Valley, was the victim of a snatcher who wrenched a wrist-watch and gold strap from her hand in Des Voeux Road on Thursday.

cern over the surging tide of aggression and the threat it represents to the safety, the freedom, and the prestige of England. The manifestations in Tokyo are the staged threats of international housebreakers who have discovered that they can obtain by menaces what normally requires the use of force—more force than they possess. Both of the phenomena which Lord Halifax so deplors are, in the long run, the result of the Prime Minister's conception of appeasement. It was not the Opposition that gave the Japanese the idea that Britain's word, pledged in the Nine-Power Treaty, would, in the manner of the walls of Jericho, collapse at the first roar of the demagogue.

MR. CHAMBERLAIN'S contentions are likewise unconvincing. The British fleet in the Far East may be as weak as he says, but with a strong and consistent policy, the Government could win from the United States a degree of co-operation as great as Washington's present degree of mistrust. It is not too late, Mr. Roosevelt has already given a clear indication of his intentions. And again Mr. Chamberlain is letting him down and, by his confession of weakness, inviting Japan to continue her aggression.

BRITISH public opinion, as well as opinion in this colony as reflected in its English and Chinese language press, no longer takes at their face value the assurances given by Government spokesmen in Parliament. This again is not the fault of the skeptics. Who is responsible for the fact that disclaimers of a Far Eastern Munich call to mind the Munich in Europe, that Chinese silver leads to thoughts of Czech gold, and that stern declarations that prestige and honour will be maintained are marred the images of two forgotten men, the dead Mr. Tinker and the living Colonel Speake.

BY HIS OWN declaration, Mr. Chamberlain stands for compromise with the aggressor, an early "settlement" in the Far East, and the continuation of the policy across which are written the words—Manchuria, Abyssinia, Austria, Czechoslovakia and Spain.

THE VOICE of the British public shows that the real England stands for friendship with the Chinese people, for joint police action against the international war-makers, for the fullest resistance to blackmail, and for swift retaliation for insults.

EXPRESSED in the language of the contemporary situation this means an immediate loan to China, the rapid conclusion of the peace talks at Moscow, full co-operation with the United States and the rupture of the degrading exhibition at Tokyo.

PRETEXT? Surely the continued anti-British demonstrations are pretext enough.

The Chinese Cultural Group
AMERICAN TOUR SUCCESS

BY AVERIL TONG

The Chinese Cultural Group quietly, unobtrusively, left the shores of their native land some eight months ago and has since wandered modestly around America, doing their little bit in the promotion of friendship and understanding of mutual art.

Our concentration was directed to two programmes, consisting of short acts, music, dances, to be performed by ten players. Among our group of ten, three are expert musicians, two experienced amateur players of theatre music, one teacher of drama, one good amateur actor, two young lady actresses and myself. Music, instrumentally speaking is the same, whether it be classical or theatrical. Placing the same instruments under the training of the two head musicians, Messrs. Sun and Wei, our theatre musicians joined in to make an excellent six-piece classical orchestra.

The group travelled through 32 cities under the sponsorship of the American Bureau of Medical Aid for China, to pave the way for a million dollars national drive they had planned for the coming season. A sum of nearly $500,000 (N.C.) was realized from the sale of tickets for our performances, and the takings were at the disposal of our sponsors.

In relating the happy outcome of this tour, we must not fail to show our appreciation to our friends in China who encouraged us and started the Group going and to those in America who contributed so much in making our mission a success. For without their assistance, nothing could have been achieved.

TRAFFIC CASES IN HONGKONG

At the Central Court yesterday, Mr. R. H. Gregory, of Messrs. Asiatic Petroleum Company, was fined $5 by Mr. R. Edwards for failing to have a vehicle licence, for his car No. 5280, whilst driving in Garden Road, on July 22.

Mr. A. H. Veitman, of 264, The Peak, J. Ralston, and L. M. S. Lloyd, of 3 Garden Terrace, were fined $5 each, for failing to carry the vehicle licence disc in such a position as to be visible at Garden Road, on July 22.

Dr. A. H. Barwell, of the Medical Department, was also fined $5 for a similar offence at Queen's Road East, on July 22.

Dr. J. M. Gray, of 564, The Peak, was fined $5 on each charge, when summoned for failing to have a driving licence and vehicle licence at Garden Road on July 22, whilst D. H. Helby was fined $5 for failing to carry the vehicle licence disc at Garden Road on July 22.

Mr. A. R. Colquhoun, of 7, Bowen Road, who was summoned for failing to have a vehicle licence and driving licence, was fined $5 on each charge.

Lieut. Commander de Chair, of 366, The Peak, was fined $5 on each charge, when summoned for failing to have an appropriate driving licence and vehicle licence at Garden Road, on July 22.

CARTOONS AND WOODCUTS

A large number of cartoons and wood-cuts by China's foremost artists are on display at the Hong-kong Hotel to-day and to-morrow. Representing the finest efforts of progressive Chinese cartoonists and wood-cut artists, the exhibition, which opened yesterday, is attracting great interest and attention.

KOWLOON MURDER HEARING

Committal proceedings were continued at Kowloon Court yesterday, on charges of robbery, murder, and possession of arms against Chan Sang, Lai Yau, and Yau Sang alias Li Sang who are alleged to have robbed a goldsmith's shop in Shanghai Street on May 30 and to have shot a pedestrian, a woman, named Au-yung, Yai-wan, in a gun fight with a Chinese detective in Argyle Street.

Witnesses called at yesterday's hearing were Au 'Si'-kong, 60-years-old, who had employed Au-yung as an 'smat', Leung Kung-po, 31, a partner in the business of the Wing Cheung Goldsmiths, Leung Kai, 20, an accountant, and Cheung Yiu, 20, apprentice goldsmiths.

COURT ALLOWS APPEAL
CHINESE SEAMEN'S UNION CASE

In the Court of Appeal yesterday before the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, an appeal was successfully brought by Wong Nga-lun, Leung Kau and Chu Po-hang against their conviction on March 23 by Mr. T. J. Houston, Police Magistrate, on charges of assisting in the management of an unlawful society, namely the Chinese Seamen's Union, and for being members of the society.

The first appellant was fined $250 or to serve three months on the first charge, and fined $25 or one month on the second charge; second and third appellants were fined $100 or two months and $25 or one month on the two charges respectively.

The Hon. Mr. Leo D'Almada, Jnr., instructed by Mr. M. A. da Silva, appeared for the appellants, while Mr. John Whyatt, Crown Counsel, appeared for the respondent, Chief Detective Inspector M. Murphy.

Mr. Whyatt said that since the proceedings in the lower court, the Hongkong Government had received information from the British Embassy in Chungking that the old Seamen's Union had been abolished. A document was also handed to him from the Chinese Minister of Foreign Affairs on Thursday, and he had no reason to doubt the correctness of the statement.

It was quite plain, however, added Mr. Whyatt, that the local Union had connections with the Union outside the Colony and was at the moment illegal. But Mr. D'Almada was prepared to furnish an undertaking to the effect that the Union would not enter into any activities until approval had been obtained from the Governor-in-Council.

Mr. D'Almada confirmed the undertaking and mentioned that the evidence from Chungking was given to the Police Magistrate at the time of the lower court proceedings, while Mr. Silva, at the same time, had applied for an adjournment of the case which was refused.

His Lordship allowed the appeal and ordered that the conviction be quashed and the fines returned.

CHILD'S DEATH INQUEST

Circumstances surrounding the death of a one-year-old boy, Tsan Chi-kin, formed the subject of an inquest held at the Central Court yesterday, Mr. R. Edwards sitting as Coroner. The jurors were: James Jardine Whyte (Foreman), William Edwin Funnell and Francis Xavier Lee. Insp. A. V. Baker appeared on behalf of the police.

Yee Lal-wah, mother of the deceased, said that on June 27 the child was taken to the Violet Peel Centre to be weighed, after which he was allowed to walk about, when the boy slipped and fell on the floor. Later measles developed and the child was taken to the Queen Mary Hospital on July 4 but died the next day.

A verdict of death due to natural causes was returned.

GAMING HOUSE CHARGE

Following a raid carried out by the police on Thursday night, Chan Shun, 40, Chan Fuk, 35, appeared before Mr. T. J. Houston, at the Central Magistracy yesterday, charged with keeping a common gaming house at Room No. 205, Tai Tung Boarding House, No. 112, Commaught Road Central, and playing the game of "tantan," whilst 16 others were charged with gambling.

They were fined $250 each and the rest were fined $10 each.

A CORRECTION

With reference to the Shanghai report of the arrest of a large number of gunmen in Shanghai, appearing in these columns yesterday, a proof-reading error unfortunately crept in which gave the impression that these terrorists were in the employ of Dr. Wang Chung-hui, Chinese Minister of Foreign Affairs. Actually, the report should have stated that the gunmen were alleged to belong to Wang Ching-wei's "Special Service Corps." Wang Ching-wei, of course, being the renegade who was expelled from the Kuomintang and who is now "Puppet No. 1" of the Japanese.

Hello &amp; Goodbye

(BY A. W. HYER)

The Hongkong and Kowloon Wharf and Godown Co.'s piers were honoured yesterday by a visit of H.M.S. Eagle. It is quite unusual to see the large Navy ship tied up to one of the local piers. The occasion was the transfer of one thousand men from the aircraft-carrier to H.M. Troopship Dilwara, which arrived from England yesterday bringing the new crew for the Eagle. With little ado the change was made in short order and the Eagle returned to her buoy in the harbour.

LORDS DEBATE ON FAR EAST SITUATION INTERPRETATION OF TOKYO FORMULA REQUESTED

Continuance Of Support For Chinese Currency

LONDON, Aug. 3 (Reuter)—The leader of the Opposition, Lord Snell, initiated the debate on foreign affairs in the House of Lords yesterday.

The Prime Minister, he declared, appeared to display irritation and petulance towards those seeking information which would be appropriate in a vain, ample spinster unsuccessfully trying to slim.

Lord Snell asked Viscount Halifax for an interpretation of the Tokyo formula, and an assurance that the Government's policy in China was not to be changed, and that the Government would continue to support Chinese currency.

Referring to Russia, Lord Snell said the situation appeared to be continuously disappointing.

He was not going to assume that Britain was alone responsible, but he could not help noticing the speed with which the Tokyo formula was arranged compared with the exasperating delays which had taken place in Moscow.

Lord Cecil said he wished the Government would give a more specific and clearer explanation of its Far East policy.

Mr. Chamberlain's statement has left little doubt in my mind as to what that policy really is. The Government should demonstrate that it was not afraid of Japanese retaliation.

A POSSIBILITY? "I recognise," he added, "that for us to face a possible naval attack on our possessions in the Far East would be awkward, but that is a possibility which you must consider if there is a Japanese victory in China."

"In the latter event, the whole of our possessions would be swept away. No reasonable man can doubt that that would be the result. The moment the Japanese have destroyed China, they will, certainly turn and destroy us."

Referring to his own experiences with Japanese diplomacy, Lord Cecil says that he found that every concession made to Japan simply invited further demands.

PARALLEL STEP Lord Cecil said he hoped Viscount Halifax would tell the House what parallel step the Government thought of taking with reference to the United States notice of abrogation of the treaty of 1911 with Japan.

BLAZING SHIP MYSTERY

JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA, Aug. 4 (Reuter)—The air search for the "blazing oil tanker," which sent a series of messages and distress signals saying that she was sinking and that her crew were taking to the boats, but whose name was not identified, has been abandoned by the coastguard authorities after a plane had vainly searched the sea for three hours.

FISHING BOAT OUTRAGE OFF GREEN ISLAND

Woman Thrown Overboard Is Feared Drowned

THROWN OVERBOARD FROM HER OWN FISHING BOAT BY TWO PASSENGERS who turned out to be robbers, an elderly fisherman, Po Ng, 50, is believed to have drowned. Her husband, Lai Hoi-chi, 53, and their son, Lai Wah, 17, were picked up by the s.s. Cambay Prince off Green Island some half-an-hour after they were thrown into the sea.

Late last night, the elderly fisherman reported the robbery and murder to the Water Police. His wife was thrown overboard first, and then he was thrown after being hit over the head with a wooden rowlock. His son jumped in after him.

The robbers are described as dressed in good middle-class style, one of them about 50-years-old in appearance. They hired the boat, at an agreed price of $3, at Mongkok Wharf to take them to Cheung Chau Island.

"I am not very much encouraged by Mr. Chamberlain's reference to 'some just and equitable settlement' of the Sino-Japanese struggle."

"It looks to me as if there is a tendency on the Government's part to put China and Japan on equal terms in connection with this struggle."

"The Japanese invasion is one of the least justifiable events that has ever occurred in the history of the world. It has been asserted that the first object of the Japanese is to dominate China, and secondly Asia, and to exclude all European nations and individuals in any part of trade in Asia."

CURIOUS RESEMBLANCE "One cannot help noticing the curious resemblance between this policy of the Japanese military party and the policy of the present German regime."

This is partly accounted for by the fact that the Japanese army was trained by Germans, who not only gave them military skill, but views on political and international affairs.

JAPAN'S ARROGANCE "The Japanese have displayed arrogant indifference to all international obligations and to all principles of justice, while China has carried out every one of her obligations and has behaved with absolute propriety."

It is incredibly humiliating that Great Britain should take action which is regarded as favourable to Japan and unfavourable to China, and that this should give the appearance of abandoning a country which had done so much to deserve help."

160,000 GERMAN TROOPS

LONDON, Aug. 4 (Reuter)—German troops, believed to number between 150,000 and 160,000, are reliably reported to be concentrated along Poland's western frontier, according to the Warsaw correspondent of the "News Chronicle."

At Stolp, in German Pomerania, opposite Danzig, large numbers of German troops equipped with long-range guns have been stationed.

Meanwhile, visitors to Prague from Moravia and Slovakia report extensive fortifications along the whole Polish border, states the Prague correspondent of the "Daily Telegraph."

Lord Halifax Reaffirms British Policy In China

LONDON, Aug. 4 (Reuter)—"Nothing we have done, and, I hope, nothing we should do, can, on any reasonable consideration, be taken as condoning an action bearing the character of aggression," said Lord Halifax, Britain's Foreign Secretary, in replying to the criticism offered by the Opposition during the debate in the House of Lords yesterday on foreign affairs.

Viscount Halifax said that it had been suggested in several speeches from various parts of the House that the formula recently signed with Japan committed Britain to a fundamental change of policy.

That Britain had, by signing the formula, recognised a state of belligerence in China;

That it was in spirit contrary to Britain's obligations under the League resolutions, that it was in danger of violating the Nine-Power Treaty, and, generally, that it condoned actions which we had previously condemned.

"I wish to state quite frankly that, in my judgment, those who take that sort of line ignore both the plain terms of the formula and the interpretation of the formula which the Government itself has placed upon it."

"I know from the experience I have had in India how extraordinarily difficult it was for people sitting in London to appreciate the precise implications in the East of any of those carefully phrased formulas."

"That being the case, there can hardly be any ground more fertile in which an enemy can sow tares among the wheat."

"Those who make that kind of loose accusation arising out of the formula lose sight of one fact of great importance—the impression that kind of accusation I have listened to this afternoon produces is exactly the impression those who were most anxious to exacerbate the difficulties with which we were confronted at the present time, wished to see produced. Accordingly, we should be very careful indeed not to play their game."

"Though our policy is designed to promote peace and international order, nonetheless it seems that the purpose for which we bend our efforts is an endeavour to do two things. 'First of all, to assist in finding a settlement that will be fair as between all the interests concerned; secondly, from a more narrow point of view of the interests of this country, to work for such an issue in the present difficulties as will not impair our relations with China or Japan.'

"I am perfectly aware that many in the House believed that is much too optimistic a hope."

A WARNING "I don't feel for myself that the question whether or not we succeed in attaining such an object depends only on ourselves. It depends on the attitude of the Japanese Government, and how far the Japanese authorities are prepared to distinguish between local and general issues recognised by their Government, and how far they are prepared to refrain from attempts to represent general as local issues, and vice versa."

Referring to a recent interview by the Japanese Prime Minister, Viscount Halifax said he was informed by Sir Robert Craigie that he had been incorrectly reported. It he were correctly reported the Government could not accept the implications of the statement.

GRAVE VIEW "The British Government is bound to take a very grave view of the blockade in Tientsin and the increasing agitation against British interests in those parts of occupied China."

"The Japanese Government and the Japanese people must recognise that if this agitation continues, it cannot prevent relations between our two countries growing steadily more difficult."

"It is worth remembering that the Japanese Government, in the terms of the formula, made themselves responsible for the maintenance of public order in the Japanese-controlled areas in China."

"The British Government accordingly expects implementation of the formula to put down anti-British propaganda in those areas."

SPECIAL POSITION "It is not, therefore, with a view to preserving unchanged the entire structure of what one might call the old treaty methods that the British Government has shaped its policy."

"While we have never concealed our view about Japan's action in China, and are bound to have regard to all interests involved, particularly those of China, we have been fully prepared to recognise the special interest and position which Japan, in view of her geographical position and economic need, is entitled to claim and exercise," he declared.

VARIOUS SOLUTIONS Referring to Chinese currency and the disposal of the Tientsin silver stocks, Viscount Halifax said that various solutions to this problem had been suggested but none appeared to be satisfactory. The British Government was continuing to examine all the possibilities, but in considering these matters, it certainly would not lose sight of its obligations towards the Chinese Government or to the other signatories to the Nine-Power Treaty.

As regards the extension of further support for Chinese currency, any such proposal that might or might not be held desirable from the point of view of China, would also have to be considered in the light of very many other financial considerations and obligations incurred by this country at the present time.

GOOD OFFICES "I certainly hope that the British Government may, as they will certainly be ready some day, have an opportunity to use their good offices if and when they could usefully be employed."

"I do not believe it is beyond the power of men of goodwill to find a solution which will do justice to China and take into account the interests of other Powers concerned in the Far East."

CHAMBERLAIN

same time we would much rather settle the differences with the Japanese by discussion and negotiation, provided we can do so without sacrificing what we conceive as fundamental considerations and principles, than do it by threat of force."

I am thinking of all the lonely, unprotected and defenceless British people scattered in different parts of China. Even if we are determined to-morrow that we are going to the last extremity we could not protect many of them."

We have a duty to them and ought not, if we can avoid it, to put them in greater peril than that in which they now stand."

TRIBUTE TO CRAIGIE

Mr. Chamberlain paid tribute to the British Ambassador, Sir Robert Craigie, who was carrying on with great skill, coolness and courage, extraordinarily difficult negotiations.

"NO DIFFICULTY"

At any rate, this formula has enabled us to discuss the very acute situation at Tientsin and with regard to some of the difficulties there, it looks as though we should not have any great difficulty in coming to an agreement with the Japanese."

I say this deliberately because, although there is no use coming to an agreement on one point if there is no agreement as a whole, it does show that those who are conducting the negotiations are by no means so extreme or so unreasonable as we have found many Japanese in China."

WHAT ARE "JAPANESE"

With regard to the assertion that the Japanese are demanding joint police control in Tientsin, I am not quite sure what is meant by "Japanese," because there is not always complete unanimity between Tientsin and Tokyo. In cases of doubt, I think we should accept the Tokyo view. And the basis on which the discussions in Tokyo are proceeding has not been that of joint police control, but of the control remaining in the hands of the Municipal Council and its officers.

QUESTION OF HONOUR

As regards the four men, I am not surprised that Colonel Wedgwood asked for an assurance that in no circumstances would they be handed over. But I do not call him a judiciously minded person."

Mr. Noel-Baker: "It is not a question of being judiciously minded but of national honour."

Mr. Chamberlain: "I do not agree at all. On the contrary, it is a question of evidence. If there is evidence that these men were actually concerned in the murder will Colonel Wedgwood say that it is a matter of honour not to hand them over?"

OTHER POWERS CONCERNED

Dealing with the silver stocks, Mr. Chamberlain said that the difficulty in this connection was that an agreement had been reached that these discussions would be local discussions. The silver is in Tientsin, and any question that is raised about currency will refer to Tientsin. But in the view of the British Government you cannot deal with the question in Tientsin without really dealing with it elsewhere. Whatever we do about silver or currency must affect a very much wider area than Tientsin."

It is not only the British Government that is concerned in these two points and we have made it perfectly clear to the Japanese Government that we are not prepared to settle with the Japanese on the silver and currency questions. They will only be settled after consultation with the other Governments concerned."

I am not going to lay down definitely what our attitude will be, consultation or no consultation, I will say that I don't take exception to what Mr. Noel-Baker said regarding the connexion between the maintenance of Chinese currency and the capacity of the Chinese to carry on guerrilla warfare."

NO DENUNCIATION

As regards the denunciation of the Trade Treaty, we have not gone back on anything and there is nothing in the obligations we undertook at Geneva or Brussels which obliges us to denounce the Trade Treaty with Japan. "If I will not not give Mr. Noel-Baker the assurance he wants, it may seem that I am determined that the Treaty shall not be renounced. But don't let anyone put that interpretation upon my words."

The Prime Minister pointed out that twelve months would have to elapse before the denunciation could become operative, and it was accompanied by treaties with some of the Dominions. Hence

Best-informed Japanese circles adhere to the conviction that Japan will not join the Italo-German alliance for the obvious reason that there is nothing to gain and much to lose by committing herself to participate in European wrangles."

Well-informed foreign observers hold a similar view pointing out that nothing is more likely to exacerbate American feeling at this delicate moment, when the fate of future Japanese trade with America hangs in the balance, and to precipitate Russia into the arms of the democracies."

We shall endeavour, in continuing the negotiations, to preserve to the utmost extent the principles which have hitherto governed our conduct, and the interests and fortunes of British subjects."

We must not forget, however, that there are graver problems to be considered, much nearer home, in the course of the next few months, and that we must conserve our forces to meet any emergency that might arise."

Mr. Chamberlain concluded that

We are glad to be able

STRATEGIC PARIS PLAN IN LONDON DISCUSSION

Closure Of Mediterranean To The Enemy In War

LONDON, Aug. 4 (Reuter)—Anglo-French military discussions of great importance will be held in London to-day between the French General Huntzinger and General Viscount Gort, V.C., Chief of the Imperial General Staff.

According to a report in the "Daily Sketch," Gen. Huntzinger, who headed the recent French mission to Turkey, was sent to London by the Premier, M. Daladier, bringing with him a strategic plan which, in the event of war, would, through British and French co-operation, result in the closing of the Mediterranean to the enemy.

JAPAN'S ANSWER TO STAFF TALKS

Unofficial circles in London express the opinion that the declaration of the Japanese Ambassadors in Rome and Berlin, who are known always to have been the strongest advocates of a Japan-Italo-German alliance, is meant as an answer to the Anglo-French-Russian Staff talks. It may also indicate an attempt by the extremists to force the Japanese Government's hand.

such denunciation would have considerable repercussions in the Dominions, and it would be outrageous to shut our eyes to this fact."

NO COMMITMENTS

We have been compelled to undertake some very heavy responsibilities and commitments in Europe. Their effect is that, if certain things were to happen, this country would have to go to war. It is impossible for us to undertake the same commitments in the Far East."

This is a country whose resources are difficult to measure, a great country inhabited by people of a determined and resolute spirit, but there is a limit to what it is prudent for us to undertake."

MR. CHAMBERLAIN'S BLOOD BOILS

However our feelings may be exasperated by the things happening in the Far East, and I can assure this House that I fully share the most violent feelings of anyone on this subject and it makes my blood boil to hear and read of some of the things happening there, let us not forget the liabilities we have already assumed or the position of our countrymen and countrywomen on the spot."

Mr. Chamberlain concluded that

CATHOLIC NEWS & NOTES

OUR LADY OF THE SNOWS: LOUIS WAIN: A FAMOUS FRENCH ORGANIST: FROM UNION SQUARE TO ROME

One of the many feasts observed in a special manner in Rome is that of "Our Lady of Snows," which occurs to-day. It is a feast connected with the great Basilica of St. Mary Major, and the name of the feast is only a popular one for that which commemorates the dedication of the church.

The story is that in the fourth century a Roman patrician and his wife, who had no children, decided to devote their money to the erection of a church in honour of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Not knowing where to erect it, they prayed about it and one night they both dreamt that they saw the Esquiline Hill in Rome covered with snow. In the morning they found that this had actually happened, and that many had seen the unheard-of sight of snow on the Esquiline, and in the month of August.

They interpreted this as an indication that they should build a church in Mary's honour there, and they did it. The church is St. Mary Major's, which has been rebuilt and restored many times since its first erection. The story of its foundation is only a legend, for it does not appear to have been told until two hundred years after the church was erected.

St. Mary Major's is one of the most celebrated of Roman churches, and one in which there is a special Jubilee door, which is bricked up except in Jubilee years at the beginning and end of which it is opened and closed with great solemnity. It is also one of the most beautiful churches in Rome. It occupies a very commanding position and has an imposing exterior, while the interior is probably the finest and richest example of basilica style in existence. It has many tombs of famous men, and it is rich in historical associations of the last fifteen centuries.

LOUIS WAIN

News of the death of Louis Wain will recall to a great many people the inimitable drawings of cats for which he was famous. For years he drew nothing else, though he was a skilled artist, especially in black-and-white, and was responsible for most of the illustrations in Stewart Rose's sumptuous, Life of St. Ignatius.

He was a Catholic and a pupil of the Christian Brothers. He was a Londoner, born of an English father and a French mother. His reputation as an artist lasted for over fifty years. It was after a period on the staff of the Illustrated London News and the Lady's Pictorial that he devoted himself to drawings of cats.

He produced cat pictures in every form, for not merely did he paint the delightful cat studies which were so widely reproduced, but he was also responsible for hundreds of pictures that appeared on post-cards, on bazaar programmes, in advertisements and in a hundred other forms.

His cat books became known over the whole English-speaking world. Several years ago he suffered a mental breakdown, so he disappeared from public view. Many Catholic artists attended a

LESSON SERMON

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, HONGKONG

SUBJECT—SPIRIT.

The subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science Churches to-morrow, August 6, will be "Spirit."

The Golden Text will be:—What man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? Even so the things of God, knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God." (1 Cor. 2:11)

Among others the following citations will be read from the Bible:—"Teach me to do thy will; for thou art my God: thy spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness. Now we have received, not the Spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. But the natural can receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." (Ps. 143: 10; 1 Cor. 2:12-14)

The following citations will also be read from the Christian Science Text-book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy:—"The belief that Spirit is finite as well as infinite has darkened all history. In Christian Science, Spirit, as a proper noun, is the name of the Supreme Being. It means quantity and quality, and applies exclusively to God. In the Bible the word Spirit is so commonly applied to deity, that Spirit and God are often regarded as synonymous terms; and it is thus they are uniformly used and understood in Christian Science. Man has 'sought out many inventions,' but he not yet found it true that knowledge can save him from the dire effects of knowledge." (Pages 93, 94, 198)

38 Years Of Office

LONDON'S BISHOP HELD IN HIGHEST REGARD

LONDON, July 24 (By Air Mail).—Fittingly enough the last public act of Dr. Winnington Ingram as Bishop of London was to consecrate on Saturday the 85th new church which has opened its doors to worshippers during his 38 years of office.

No Bishop of modern times has evoked such a wealth of affectionate regard as Dr. Winnington Ingram. From the moment he became Head of Oxford House, in Bethnal Green, his engaging gifts of heart and mind have appealed to the imagination of Londoners. Far beyond the bounds of his diocese and of his native land his name has become almost legendary.

Round The World.
Now at the age of 81 he is to set off on a missionary journey round the world. The emotions of the recent gathering in the Albert Hall as it wished its beloved chief pastor farewell and God-speed are shared by many thousands of men and women within the Church of England and outside its fold.

Presiding at that great meeting the Archbishop of Canterbury said that "the great heart of London goes out to the Bishop in overflowing affection." And not the great heart of London alone, for the influence of his memorable ministry has extended to the ends of the earth.

U.S.-SOVIET TRADE PACT

NEW YORK, Aug. 4 (Reuter).—
The Trade Agreement with the Soviet which is due to expire on Aug. 3, will be renewed for a year, it is generally anticipated.
An announcement in this connexion is expected very shortly.

The treaty will be much in the same form as at present, retaining for the most part the most favoured nation treatment for Russian products, but limiting the coal imports to 400,000 tons.

A sum of $20,000 was personally contributed to the Chinese Government, when Mr. Nee Kwang-ku,
Chairman of the Chinese General
Chamber of Commerce in Siam, called upon General Chiang Kai-shek in Chungking on July 26. Mr.
Nee paid his respects to General Chiang on behalf of members of the Chamber of Commerce. He left Chungking later for a tour of inspection of the south-west, to study economic and industrial development.

NEW BANKNOTES
FOR CHINA

LONDON, Aug. 4 (Reuter).—The Central Bank of China has given contracts to two British banknotes printers for over 1,000,000,000 notes.

Neither the exact total nor the value of the notes can be divulged.

Four hundred extra hands have been engaged to cope with one of the contracts, which will take a further year to complete. The other contract has already been completed.

The original plates will be kept in Britain and the notes sent to China by various routes.

LONDON STOCK
EXCHANGERally In Gilt-Edged Securities

LONDON, Aug. 4 (Reuter).—On the Stock Exchange, the most cheerful feature of yesterday's market was the late rally in gilt-edged securities, while Home Rails also improved on the hopes of a peaceful settlement of the wages dispute.

Elsewhere most groups were easier, owing to the absence of buying, except internationals, which was in strong sympathy with Wall Street.

Yesterday's Bank of England returns revealed that notes in circulation were at a new high record of £520.6 million.

Among the commodities, wheat was easier on reports of cooler weather in the United States spring wheat belt.

Copper was strong on trade buying and Wall Street was firm.

MEXICAN OIL
DISPUTEGovernment Terms
To Companies

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4 (Reuter).—
The Mexican Government's latest oil proposals were submitted to Mr. Richberg, the oil companies delegate. The terms have not been published, but Mexico is reported to have offered the oil companies a minority representation on a board of the revised organization that would replace the Government monopoly.

The oil companies, it is reported, will be permitted to handle all exports, while the Mexican Government will maintain control of the domestic situation.

ANOTHER REBUFF
FOR ROOSEVELT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4 (Reuter).—
The administration suffered another rebuff yesterday when a coalition of the House
—Republicans and Democrats —killed President's Roosevelt's $200,000,000 Housing Bill by voting 190 against 170, not to consider the Bill at this session.

U.S. DUTY-FREE QUOTAS FOR P.I.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4 (Reuter).—
The Senate has completed legislative action for a bill for readjusting economic relations with the Philippines prior to the projected Independence Bill.
It establishes duty free quotas
for Philippine coconut oil, embroidery, tobacco and pearl buttons between now and 1946.

HUGE FOREIGN
ORDERSGerman Shipyards
Fully Occupied

BERLIN, Aug. 4 (T/Ocean).—
More foreign orders are to-day placed with German shipbuilding yards than with those of any other country, according to information received here on Thursday.

The German yards, it is stated, are now carrying out more than three times as many foreign orders as the British yards which formerly took first place in this respect.

Two hundred and eighty three ships totalling 925,969 tons are now under building in Germany, of which fifty-five with 396,110 tons are of foreign order. Carrying out of the present building contracts will,
it is added, suffice to keep the German yards fully occupied for the next two and a half years.

SEQUEL TO STRANDING
OF M.T.B. IN MIRS BAYNaval Officer Reprimanded
At Court Martial

Found guilty at a Naval Court Martial yesterday of "negligently and by default stranding his ship and/or hawarding it." Lt. R. G. H. G. Eyre, R.N., was sentenced to be reprimanded.

The court martial, which was held on board H.M.S. Tamar, was a sequel to the stranding in Crooked Harbour on June 20 of Motor Torpedo Boat No. 12 of the 2nd Torpedo Boat Flotilla of which accused was then in command.

The following comprised the court:—Capt. F. J. Wylie (H.M.S. Tamar), Comdr. E. Vernon Rees (Tamar), Comdr. H. Stewart Murray Smith (Medway), Comdr. H. T. Rust (Tamar), Comdr. A. M. Knapp (Lowestoft), Comdr. H. P. Palmer (Royal Australian Navy).

Capt. F. C. Flynn was Prosecuting Officer, while "accused's friend" was Lt. J. H. Stucley. Accused pleaded not guilty.

REPORT TO COMMODORE

Opening the proceedings, a letter containing a report of the mishap to the Commodore, Hongkong, was read. This said:—that on the night of June 19-20, the flotilla was at anchor in Crooked Harbour, MIRS Bay.

Boats Nos. 12, 10 and 7 were secured along side one another. At about 8.50 a.m. on June 20, Motor Boat No. 12 slipped from alongside Boat No. 10. After slipping, she altered to starboard and steamed on North at a speed of 25 knots. Immediately after steady- ing on North, a sampan was noticed about two cables on the port bow steering N. E.

Motor Boat No. 12 remained on a course North intending to pass under the stern of the sampan but when about half a cable from the sampan, it was observed that she had a line over the stern and was apparently laying a line of nets.

The officer of the Motor boat considered that he had then insufficient room to alter to port to avoid the nets and consequently ordered the "wheel" to be put to starboard (5 degrees) and the speed reduced to 20 knots, intending to pass through the channel to the east of Mun Tai Pai. Before this turn could be completed the motor boat struck a rock and remained aground for 26 hours 43 minutes.

The report added that in turning to starboard to avoid the sampan the accused was guilty of hawarding his ship since it showed an unjustifiable confidence in his ship's position relative to Mun Tai Pai and in his ability to turn clear of that rock.

PROSECUTION'S CASE

Lt. Comdr. D. G. Clark gave evidence after a number of witnesses had been heard. He said that the rock on which M.T.B. No. 12 had stranded had been seen by him the previous day, when No. 12 had been present. At 20 knots, the turning circle of a M.T.B. was 150-200 yards.

In answer to cross-examination, witness said he had no particular reason for noticing the rock the day previous. So far as he remembered, when they came to anchor it was half-tide. The turning circle of a M.T.B. was 200 yards at 20 knots, which would be about 50 degrees of wheel.

Petty Officer E. C. H. Pay said he was at the wheel of No. 12 when it grounded. Originally they were alongside No. 10. When they left No. 10 they turned starboard and continued on that course for a couple of minutes. On arriving alongside No. 9 he was given orders to stop. After a few seconds they stopped, and he was then given further instructions to go ahead. His last order was "starboard wheel" and a few seconds after he got that order the boat stopped. After further evidence, the prosecution's case closed.

ROCK VISIBLE?

Lt. Stucley then said he wished to call Lt. Clark, and following an adjournment, this was allowed.

The last question asked the recalled witness by accused's friend was whether he had seen any part of the rock in question previous to the grounding. Witness replied that he could not say for certain but he thought one or two spikes were visible. Lt. Stucley thereupon stated there he would like to call further evidence on that point as the defence maintained that no part of that rock was visible.

Following discussion, this was allowed by the court, which then adjourned for lunch.

On resumption at 2.15 p.m. Petty Officer Pay, who had previously given evidence for the prosecution, was recalled.

and, in answer to accused's friend said that immediately before Motor Torpedo Boat No. 12 stopped nothing was visible ahead. Asked a similar question, Leading Artificer W.E. Bond gave a similar reply.

Following addresses by defence and prosecution, the court was again cleared while judgment was deliberated.

Re-assembled after approximately an hour and a half, a verdict of guilty on both charges was returned.

Accused made a statement in mitigation, and then called Lt. Cdr. Clark, to give evidence as to his character as an officer.

"MOST EFFICIENT OFFICER"

Cdr. Clark said: "During the time Lt. Eyre served under my command he conducted himself entirely to my satisfaction. He has proved himself in so far as I can judge a most efficient and painstaking officer and I have on no occasion had any cause to doubt his judgment and ability."

He has always been ready to carry out any duty which I have imposed upon him cheerfully and to the best of his ability, and skill in handling this boat has been on a par, and even above that, of other officers under my command."

The court was then once more cleared for deliberation before sentence was passed as above.
